Dear Harold:

Just a note to acknowledge receipt of and thank you for your letter and accompanying materials of 30 October 1969. I agree with your remarks concerning Finck; in fact, I compliment you on such keen perception.

I wish you success in your pending legal action. We certainly need some kind of a breakthrough before matters become more obscured by time.

Please keep in touch and let me know of any significant new developments.

Please convey my best regards to Bud.

With kind regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril
